A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a sunny day in a park. In the center, a fluffy brown dog with floppy ears sits on the grass, holding and reading a map. To its left, a small grey mouse with large ears stands holding an open book. The grass is dotted with various flowers: a yellow daisy, a red tulip, a potted red flower, and a small yellow chick-like flower. A blue and yellow striped beach ball and a green watering can are also on the grass. In the background, a wooden birdhouse sits on a post, a green bush is visible, and a simple wooden fence runs across the scene. The sky is light blue with a bright yellow sun, a large white cloud, a smaller white cloud, and a colorful hot air balloon. A small orange butterfly flutters near the bush.
